Cooperation between IBF Luxembourg and PRIM - December 2007

Cooperation between IBF Luxembourg and PRIM (Luxembourg Association for risk management Professionals)

We are pleased to announce that the Board of IBF Luxembourg and Prim have decided to cooperate in the future. Our websites shall be cross linked and members of the respective organisations shall have the opportunity to join the events of the other organisation. We are also planning joint events.

PRiM is the Luxembourg association for Risk Management Professionals which was founded on July 1st 1997. Members come not only directly from the risk management functions in the sectors of banking, insurance, audit and consulting, but also from a broad range of related functions such as compliance, internal audit or operational and general management.

As both associations have the primary goal to provide a Luxembourg-based forum for networking and exchange of information between professionals of the financial centre, this cooperation should allow both of our members to further enhance their networking and join other Luxembourg professional associations through conferences, joint working groups and other activities.

IBF official language - December 2007

International Bankers Forum (IBF) Luxembourg official language:

Bearing in mind that we are an international organisation, the Board has decided that in future English will be the main language of IBF Luxembourg. We are trying to be an association for all backgrounds and languages, a situation in which English is becoming more widely adopted. Our conferences and other public events shall be, with few exceptions, also held in English. Our financial sector now comprises so many different nationalities and languages that we need to make sure that we do not isolate any linguistic group.

The relaunch of our website is online! Please have a look and let us have your feed-back. Membership data is not yet complete as we have not received the required data by every member. For those of you who have not yet updated their data and/or photo, please feel free to do so. In case you do not wish your professional contact data to be published, please let us know by the latest October 30th. Non-reponse will be treated as approval.

It is our intention to establish our website as a working communication tool between our members and other persons interested. In a second step registration for IBF events should be made via the website. As far as provided, any documentation regarding the IBF events shall be put on the website as a pdf. download.

Reservation and cancelation of IBF Luxembourg events (22.9.2006)

If you register for an IBF event and are not able to come, please cancel by mail or phone by the latest 24 hours before the start of the event. In case of non-participation without giving notice or late notice we have to cash in the participation for the lunch. We have to pay for the restaurant for any meal not cancelled 24 hours in advance, irrespective of your attendance. We ask for your understanding - we have to handle the IBF funds in a responsible way.
